

It has been such a pleasure not having to deal with definitely UNWANTED, unneeded phone calls. I am very much in approval of the law as it stands and would be very disappointed in our elected officials if they caved in to telemarketers demands.